Alfred Samuel Akoade.

123 Main Street, Ibadan Oyo State.

+234 90 222 333 893

alfredsamuel@gmail.com

Objective

To acquire experience in my field of studies and to gain practical knowledge, to enable me correlate the field knowledge with the theories in school. Build work related skills required for the business environment through constructive feedback and supervision.

Improve general business/industry understanding, gain additional skills in areas such as communication, team building, problem solving and analytical reasoning, build valuable networks and contacts for professional development and gain insights into career options to support choice of specialized field area.

Skills and Competencies

- Identify and solve complex technology problems in business, medicine and other essential industries.
- Apply and adapt theoretical principles to develop new computer software and/or hardware solutions.
- Are well-versed in CS-related math skills, e.g., linear algebra, calculus, statistics & discrete mathematics.
- Must possess world-class soft skills in complex problem-solving, communication and creative thinking.
- Consult with end-users, managers and vendors to determine computing goals and system requirements.
- Utilize superior technical writing skills to document and publish their most significant CS findings.

Activities

Association of Nigerian Computer Science student Osun State University chapter
Vice President Student Union Government Osun State Branch

Experience

9/1/2017 - 5/1/2019 Undergraduate Interns
                                  Osun State University Osogbo

Job Duties and Tasks for: "Undergraduate Intern"

- Assisted the professors to initiated facilitated and moderated computer science related course discussions in accordance of curriculum.
- Assisted the professors in planning, designing and revising syllabi curriculum instruction content and other materials as required.
- Provided student body with counsel in line with the department directive.
- Stayed abreast of advancements in computing technology programming and syntax
- Participated in outreach programs community development and civic works that enhanced the community and high school student interest in computer science and related topics

- Assisted the Head of Department in Instructing the basic math courses in compliance with department programs
- Any other Duties Assigned.

Education

2017 – 2021	Osun State University Osogbo,
	B.Sc Computer Science (in View)
Grade Point Average	3:11

Hobbies

Reading, Meeting People and playing chess

Reference

Available Upon Request